THE CITY OF STAUNTON.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
STAUNTON, Va., July 7.—The Lottie Gayheart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Gayheart, was married to Mr. Columbus May, of Clifton Forge, Tuesday evening, the ceremony being performed by Rev. M. L. Wood, of the Baptist Church. The young couple left on the train for Clifton Forge, where they will make their future home.

The two daughters of Mr. P. J. Hughes, formerly of Staunton, but now superintendent of the Postal Telegraph Company at Savannah, Ga., were in the city this morning on their way to Harrisonburg. One of the little girls is ten and the other twelve, and made the trip alone.

Dr. J. G. Wilson, of Richmond, is visiting his sister, Mrs. George Cottrell, in the city.

Mr. Ernest Tyler went to Richmond this week to visit his wife, who has been in the Memorial Hospital for some time. Should Dr. Wilson, delegate at large, in operation, think she is well enough, Mr. and Mrs. Tyler will spend some time in Concord.

The special cars carrying the Virginia delegation to St. Louis will pass through Staunton Sunday evening at 10 o'clock, when A. C. Braxton, delegate at large, and N. C. Watts will join the party.

Major and Mrs. James H. Doolittle, of Richmond, were in the city this week, the guests of Major T. C. Elder.

Miss Mary Turk returned from Richmond.

Miss May Newman, formerly of Staunton, but now of New York city, was in the city this week and Thursday went to Richmond to visit relatives before returning home.

Mr. Ernest Fretwell, a former Staunton resident, but now a telephone operator in the Richmond office, was in the city this week.

ISLE OF WIGHT SHORE.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
SHOAL BAY, Va., July 7.—Shoal Bay cottages have just been established, and five miles north of the prosperous little town of Smithfield, which is the largest town for its size in the State.

Farmers were very much discouraged at the first of the season owing to the heavy rain and had planted. They would plant, plow up, plant, and replant. Seed was in demand, and you could hear nothing but bad stands, and the question asked, "Who has any good seed to sell?" Some farmers were on the go night and day Sunday not excepted, looking for seed.

The stand now seems to be fairly good, and the crop looks fairly well.

The people of wealth at this place will soon leave for their summer outing, some to their cottages by the seashore, others for the mountains, and will not be back till the last of October or the first of November.

Miss Bettie Turner, of this place, and Mr. Joe Nelmes, of Windsor, were married Wednesday at 2:30 o'clock. Rev. Mr. Compton, of Smithfield, officiating. The bride and groom left for their home at Windsor.

Dr. W. D. Turner, of this place, has closed down his saw mill. He has cut all the standing timber on his land and the lands in reach of his mill. It is said that the Turners have been in this country the lumber business for the last fifty years.

Farmers in this section will lose on their Irish potato crop. The price has dropped so low that some say they will not dig, as it will not pay to do so. As the apple crop was killed this spring, there will not be much brandy made. The apple crop being killed will be a great loss to some few people in this county, as brandy was a good paying thing with some. Liquor is not sold in this county, except in the town of Smithfield, and it is quite a loss to the county in revenue.

The farmers will soon lay their crops and then they will take their summer outing on the noble James River. Burwell's Bay is quite a summer resort for the farmers. They come down from up in the county in wagons, carts, buggies, etc., and have picnics, dancing, etc. They seem to enjoy themselves, as well as those who go to the seashore and mountains.

There is fine bathing and fishing at Burwell's Bay, and the beach is fine for walking.

Burwell's Bay is just across the river from the city of Newport News, and has been the farmers' summer resort for the last century.

BON AIR BREEZES.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
BON AIR, Va., July 7.—Socially speaking, Bon Air has put on its summer clothes. The comfortable little hamlet, nestled in the tall pines upon the grassy hills, was never more attractive. The summer visitors are coming in full force. They were a little slow at first, but the sudden arrival in town of the "good old summer time" has rushed them out this way. The song birds, the lawns, the cooling breezes, the delicious little waters and all the other attractions that would require a half column to enumerate, have combined to draw the people from the hot rocks and the sweltering pavements of the town and the cottages here are now pretty well patronized.

Mr. B. H. Ellington and family have located here for the summer season, and, among the later arrivals to enjoy the good old summer time in the best place in Virginia, in which to enjoy it, are the Rev. Mr. Campbell and family, the Rev. Dr. Cecil and family, Mr. John T. Watson, Jr., and family of Richmond, and Miss Irene Wright, of King William county.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Noel have been in the village for a week and yesterday formally opened the LeNoel for the season.

Mrs. A. L. Adamson and daughter, who have been spending some time at Virginia Beach, are expected home next week.

Mr. Polk Miller, who has been on a touring tour in Western New York, has returned home for a rest before filling other engagements in North and South Carolina.

Mr. W. H. Whitsett and Miss Mary Whitsett, of Richmond, were the guests one day this week of Mrs. Frank S. Woodson, at Mrs. Montague's cottage.

THE WARM WELCOMES

A Widening Circle of Yearly Guests Assemble for Season.

SENATOR MORGAN COMING

Buildings and Grounds in Apple
Pie Order for the Reception of the Expected Throng.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WARM SPRINGS, Va., July 7.—The cool weather during the early summer has postponed, to a large extent, the exodus of the city people to the mountain resorts. The Warm, however, has been open for some time, and has had quite a number of guests. With the beginning of July there will, doubtless, be many more and the place will be, as it has been for many years past, the summer home of a charming circle of guests, attracted not only by the luxurious baths, but by the indefinable atmosphere of comfort and sociability which makes the Warm Springs unique among the health resorts of Virginia.

The hotel is newly painted and everything about the grounds and cottages has that appearance of neatness and cleanliness which can only be secured by vigilant care and attention.

The table is what it has always been, the best to be had, combining the profusion and rarity found in the first class hotel with that indefinable something, which we call home cooking, which prevents one from tiring of the fare. There are few homes left, indeed, under the tribulations of domestic service, where such bread is to be found, and where the Southern breakfast and supper are to be had in their full perfection. The guests at the neighboring Hot Springs drive over frequently for a supper at the Warm.

The golf grounds are being put in excellent order, and there will, doubtless, be many exciting matches for the lovers of the links.

Flag Rock is still in its old place, holding out its invitation to the pedestrian to come and see the view. The walks and drives in the Warm Springs Valley are most attractive. There is a combination of grandeur and of quiet loneliness in the scenery that enthralls the lover of nature and that is, at the same time, most restful.

Among the guests who are already here are:

Dr. T. Lloyd Magruder, wife and daughter, Mrs. G. F. Holman, Mrs. Mouchour, Mrs. George Crosby and Miss Crosby, of Washington, D. C.; Mrs. Chas. J. West and Mrs. Billis, Cincinnati; Mrs. E. D. Slaughter, Dallas, Texas; Mrs. A. H. Graham and Miss Graham, Austin, Texas; Dr. D. C. Gamble and wife, St. Louis; Mrs. John Polk, Mrs. E. M. Milken, New Orleans; Mrs. Arthur Emory, Baltimore; Mrs. H. B. Sprout and family, Staunton; Mrs. the Misses Moore, Richmond; Mr. E. B. Place, New York city; Mr. G. T. M. Gibson and family, Miss Mary Wade, Mr. Miles Farrow, Baltimore; Miss Nora Davis, Philadelphia; Dr. and Mrs. Beverly Tucker, of Norfolk.

A number of old habitués of the Warm are expected later on, among them Senator Morgan and daughter, Mr. Charles Belmont Davis, Dr. and Mrs. Jarboe, Mr. Charles V. Fink and family, Mr. Sam Jones, and family, Mrs. Ashton Surke, Mrs. Benjamin Valentine and a number of others.

JEFFERSON PARK.

Dr. and Mrs. Edwin A. Alderman
Were Appreciated Guests.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
JEFFERSON PARK HOTEL, July 7.—Mrs. Fannie Taylor Boykin, with an efficient corps of assistants, has once more taken charge of this delightful resort. For four years, ever since Mrs. Boykin took charge, Jefferson Park has been the synonym for hospitality. Here people from all parts of the land gather and it requires only an hour's time to feel perfectly at home. Everybody knows everybody else and there is a freedom from restraint that is most delightful.

Next to hospitality in point of attractiveness comes the fare. The services of a good housekeeper have been engaged and the old-time standard of excellence is fully lived up to.

Dr. and Mrs. Edwin A. Alderman, who have been guests at the hotel for some time, left on Thursday for New York. While here they were recipients of much attention and many honors. Judging from the many expressions of appreciation, the guests of the hotel, the selection of president of the University has been a most happy one. Dr. Alderman was kept very busy all the time. Telegrams and letters were constantly coming in, and if he does decide to accept the presidency, it will certainly be against the wishes of his many friends and admirers in New Orleans.

His charming young wife made many friends here. Though seriously indisposed, a good portion of the time when she did appear, it was always with a bright smile and pleasant word for every one. Mrs. Alderman is rather of the type, she is young and light brown eyes of unusual beauty, wavy brown hair and clear complexion. She laughingly remarked the day she left: "Now suppose I decide to come to Virginia. You know once before a wife was the means of the University missing a president."

With the opening of the School of Methods came educators from all over the country. Many are quartered at the hotel. Prominent among these are Dr. and Mrs. R. G. Moulton, of Chicago University, Dr. Moulton's lectures on Bible Literature and Studies in Shakespeare are attracting widespread interest.

Miss Jessica Tabler, of Washington, D. C., who has charge of the music of the School of Methods, has a contralto voice of rare volume and quality. She and Miss Elsie Boykin, who possesses a high soprano, entertain the guests most delightfully with their vocal selections.

Mrs. Julian P. Thomas, of Richmond, is one of the most popular ladies here. Coupled with an air of unusual refinement and culture, Mrs. Thomas possesses a rare tact that makes her equal to any occasion.

As in past years, one of the chief attractions of this place for young people is dancing at the pavilion. Every evening crowds of young people come out from Charlottesville. The young couple from the hotel go down and all have a jolly time. Some of the recent arrivals are Walter J. Hurley, New York; Leech K. Crosscut, University; Miss Annie Frayser, Greens county, Va.; D. H. Horning and wife, Warrenton, Va.; C. S. Wooding, Virginia; Godfrey Henkel, Staunton; Phil S. Smith, Fredericksburg, Va.; Alfred P. Jones, Fredericksburg, Va.; Mrs. Kidder Meade Hine, Richmond, Va.; Ebenhold Rogers and wife, University of Virginia;

Wood's Seeds.

Crimson Clover

Sown at the last working of the Corn or Cotton Crop, can be plowed under the following April or May in time to plant corn or other crops the same season. Crimson Clover prevents winter leaching of the soil, is equal in fertilizing value to a good application of stable manure and will wonderfully increase the yield and quality of corn or other crops which follow it. It also makes splendid winter and spring grazing, fine early green feed, or a good hay crop. Even if the crop is out off, the action of the roots and stubble improve the land to a marked degree.

OUR ELECTRIC STITCHER

sews a tighter seam and better than the hand. It has a clamp that holds the fabric firmly to the wheel, and uses a small awl and larger thread, which fills up the awl hole tight. The thread is waxed as it sews with a liquid hot wax, which cements the stitch in place. When the cobbler sews by hand he uses a large awl so that he can sew easily and not hurt his hands when he pulls at the stitch, and makes a longer stitch so he can get through quicker, but which does not last as neat and not as strong. We use "Rock Oak" leather, which is the best leather tanned in this firm, plant leather, and does not feel like you had on wooden shoes. Men's shoes whole sale, $1; ladies', 50c.
